Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 09 May 2005.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Species I: nonsphagnum peat material in the reply filed on 9 May 2005 is acknowledged. Claims 28 and 29 are withdrawn from Examination because they are drawn to the non-elected species.

Acknowledgement is made of Applicant's IDS received 20 June 2003.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 17-20, ²⁷ are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Soltanzad et al. (2nd document on 2nd page of Applicant's A820) in view of Poole et al. (1st document on 2nd page of Applicant's A820).

As to claims 17, 20, and 27, Soltanzad et al. discloses a growth medium for plants comprising sugar cane mill mud ("FPM" of Table 2 on page 44) and a peat material ("peat moss" of Table 2 of page 44). Not disclosed is the peat moss being non-sphagnum peat. Poole et al., however, discloses a growth medium with non-sphagnum peat ("Florida sedge peat" of Table 1 of page 287). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the medium of Soltanzad et al. by using non-sphagnum peat as disclosed by Poole et al. depending upon cost and availability of materials.

As to claims 18 and 19, Soltanzad et al. as modified by Poole et al. further disclose a ratio of about 1:1.4 (from Soltanzad et al. in that a ratio of 1:1 is about 1:1.4).

Claims 21-²³ are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Soltanzad et al. (2nd document on 2nd page of Applicant's A820) in view of Poole et al. (1st document on 2nd page of Applicant's A820) in further view of Ollerenshaw et al. (US 5,542,962).

As to claim 21, the limitations of claim 17 are disclosed and described above. Not disclosed is the medium a casing soil composition. Ollerenshaw et al., however, discloses a growth medium also used as a casing soil composition (col. 7 lines 23-28). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to further modify the medium of Soltanzad et al. as modified by Poole et al. by using as a casing soil composition as disclosed by Ollerenshaw et al. so as to increase the uses of the material.

As to claim 22, Soltanzad et al. as modified by Poole et al. and Ollerenshaw et al. further disclose the water wt/vol to be 65 to 70% (col. 3 lines 37-40).

As to claim 23, Soltanzad et al. as modified by Poole et al. and Ollerenshaw et al. further disclose pH controlling agent ("dolomite" of 2nd col. of page 287 of Poole et al.).

Art Unit: 3643

Claims 24-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Soltanzad et al. (2nd document on 2nd page of Applicant's A820) in view of Poole et al. (1st document on 2nd page of Applicant's A820) in further view of McCallister (US 4,219,966).

As to claims 24 and 26, the limitations of claim 17 are disclosed and described above. Not disclosed is a filler of bagasse at about 30 to about 80% wt. McCallister, however, discloses a growth medium with a bagasse filler at 80% (col. 3 lines 17-21 and 50-53). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to further modify the medium of Soltanzad et al. as modified by Poole et al. by having a bagasse filler at 80% as disclosed by McCallister so as to use the medium as a rapid grass medium (McCallister at abstract).

As to claim 25, the limitations of claim 24 are disclosed and described above. Not disclosed is the filler being about 60 to 70% wt. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to further modify the medium of Soltanzad et al. as modified by Poole et al. and McCallister by having a filler at from about 60 to about 70% wt. depending upon the growth needs of the species of plant.

Conclusion

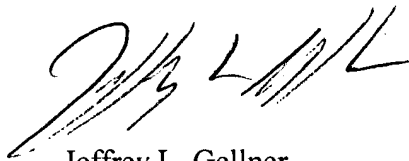

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. May et al. disclose in the prior art a medium with bagasse.
